

Dear Parent/Guarantor:

This is an application for a new or replacement library card for your child. It is completely free! Before you complete and sign the application form below, please read the following:

1. Until your child is 18 years old, you are responsible for any charges for overdue materials. You are also responsible for any lost or damaged materials.
2. Contact the Library immediately if the card is lost or stolen so that others may not use it illegally.
3. The card may be used to borrow any item in the Library.
4. The Library also offers open access to the Internet. It is your responsibility to decide what library resources are appropriate for your child and to guide your child in the use of the Internet.
☐ Your child had access to open Internet today and needs a library card to continue doing so in the future.
5. After verifying the information and signing the application form below, please have the child return the form to the Library.
6. Please sign the back of your child's library card.
